

Privacy Notice

The school workforce

Who processes your information?

The school is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means they determine the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to staff is to be processed.

GDPR for schools is the data protection officer. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data processing practices. This individual can be contacted on 01629 532888 or email gdprforschools@derbyshire.gov.uk

Where necessary, third parties may be responsible for processing staff members' personal information. Where this is required, the school places data protection requirements on third party processors to ensure data is processed in line with staff members' privacy rights.

Why do we need your information?

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- Article 6(a) - Consent (for any processing which does not fall into the bases detail within this section below)
- Article 6(c) - Compliance and Legal Obligation
- In particular, but not exclusively, section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments
- Article 6(e) - Public Interest.
- Article 6(f) – Legitimate Interest

Stocksbridge Junior School has the legal right and a legitimate interest to collect and process personal data relating to those we employ to work at the school, or those otherwise contracted to work at the school. We process personal data in order to meet the safeguarding requirements set out in UK employment and childcare law, including those in relation to the following:

- School Staffing (England) Regulations 2009 (as amended)
- Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- The Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009

Staff members' personal data is also processed to assist in the running of the school, and to enable individuals to be paid.

If staff members fail to provide their personal data, there may be significant consequences. This includes the following:

Employment checks:

- Failure to provide the school with ample proof of a right to work in the UK will prevent employment at Stocksbridge Junior School.
- Employees found to be working illegally could face prosecution by law enforcement officers.
- Failure to provide satisfactory references could prevent employment at Stocksbridge Junior School.
- Failure to provide proof of necessary qualifications relevant to the post will prevent employment at Stocksbridge Junior School.

Salary requirements:

- Failure to provide accurate tax codes and/or national insurance numbers could lead to issues of delayed payments or an employee paying too much tax.

DBS checks:

- Failure to complete a DBS check will prevent employment at Stocksbridge Junior School.
- Failure to disclose any subsequent criminal offences following the initial DBS check could result in disciplinary action and/or dismissal.
- Failure to complete a childcare disqualification regulations form will prevent employment at Stocksbridge Junior School.

For which purposes are your personal data processed?

In accordance with the above, staff members' personal data is used for the following reasons:

- Contractual requirements
- Employment checks, e.g. right to work in the UK
- Salary requirements
- Equal opportunities
- DBS checks
- School workforce Census Return (DfE)

Which data is collected?

The personal data the school will collect from the school workforce includes the following:

- Personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number, address)
- Special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- Contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- Work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- Qualifications relevant
- Medical information
- Payroll information
- Employment checks (DBS/identity information including Right to Work documentation)
- Next of kin information including their contact details for emergency use

The collection of personal information will benefit both the Department for Education and Local Authority by:

- Improving the management of workforce data across the sector.
- Enabling the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed.
- Informing the development of recruitment and retention policies.
- Allowing better financial modelling and planning.
- Enabling ethnicity and disability monitoring.
- Supporting the work of the school teachers' review body.

Will your personal data be sought from third parties?

Staff members' personal data is only sought from the data subject. No third parties will be contacted to obtain staff members' personal data without the data subject's consent.

How is your information shared?

Stocksbridge Junior School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so.

We are required, by law, to pass on some personal information to our Local Authority and the Department for Education. This includes the following:

- Workforce Census
- DBS details
- HMRC

How long is your data retained for?

Staff members' personal data is retained in line with Stocksbridge Junior School's Records Management Policy.

Personal information may be retained for the following periods depending on the nature of the information. Data will only be retained for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was processed, and will not be retained indefinitely.

If you require further information regarding retention of data, and the periods for which your personal data is held for, please download our Records Management Policy.

What are your rights?

As the data subject, you have specific rights to the processing of your data.

You have a legal right to:

- Request access to the personal data that Stocksbridge Junior School holds.
- Request that your personal data is amended.
- Request that your personal data is erased.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted.

Where the processing of your data is based on your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. This will not affect any personal data that has been processed prior to withdrawing consent.

Staff members also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) in relation to how Stocksbridge Junior School processes their personal data.
